Committee Reports

Finance – Jim Wise presented the quarterly financial report.

Worship – Shelly Smith reported they played a roll in adding music for the revival. Hanging of the greens is coming up on Sunday, December 1. Worship committee is working on advent.

Evangelism – In Mike and Connie's absence, their written report was presented. The evangelism committee distributed PCC brochures. They hosted Trunk or Treat on October 31, indoors. Over 200 attended. They are also planning a movie night. They are designing and selling PCC shirts as well.

Education – Julie Burton reported everything is going smoothly.

Pastoral Relations – Shelly Smith reported for Sandy Hoagland that she has nothing to report.

Membership – Judy Smith reported that they participated in Homecoming and provided refreshments for revival. They purchased a sterling silver cross for a wedding. It was also reported that the Chili dinner is coming up.

Outreach – Susan Lutzke reported they distributed 3 meals to 150 homeless and many other needed items. The outreach committee and members of the congregation met to pack shoe boxes for OCC twice. 124 quality boxes were packed. In 2020 the outreach committee will do something different due to the struggle to cover OCC shipping cost. We will pack large boxes for CYBC, with needed supplies. They are delivering food to the Interchurch food pantry on Mon, Nov 25. Thank you to George Burton for fixing the blessing box.

Memorial – Judy Eldridge reported September had outgoing money from the Marion Hatchett fund. There was incoming money in November from the Martha Ann Findley Memorial Fund. $6k has been donated to the Elevator Lift Fund.

Christian Women's Fellowship – Judy Eldridge reported that CWF held a successful craft fair and bake sale this year. The Craft Fair profit was reported to be $2,472.00. This month they are donating profits to several organizations, Angel Christmas Tree, Johnson County Senior Services, Postage money for OCC shoe boxes and sponsoring the Christmas Tea. They are collecting cookies and wrapped candy for the Christmas Tins for the older members and the shut-ins.

Pastor Steven Sorensen – Pastor Steve presented his written report.
